the first time on the previ- to the rear section

Lowry is so confident that he has lost to Chester's James Wharton in the 800-meter race in the previous year. Wharton ran a 2:58.6 to win by two strides.

Washington's Steve Griffiths won the Class AAA 400 in 49.96. Lowry finished next in the winning 1:20 relay team along with Scott Landa and Jim Pines.

Their collection of titles resulted in an overwhelming team victory for Washington, as the Trojans pulled up 116 points. The next closest boys' Class AAA team was Council Rock, with 31.

Haverford's Dave Jensen became the glamour name in sprints by winning both the 100 (11.06) and 200 (21.86) in boys Class AAA.

But the biggest explosion of team talent was by Perkiomen Valley's brilliant girls. The Vikings won the girls Class AA team title with 153 points, possibly the highest score ever recorded in a District One meet. For contrast, consider that runner-up Phoenixville had very respectable 58 — and lost by nearly 1000 points!

The Perkiomen Valley girls won the team championship for the fourth consecutive year, and fifth time in the six years that girls' events have been broken into two classes.

The Vikings' Joanne Kehs set a record in the girls' 800 and led a sweep that included teammates Kate Coll and Lisa Howard.

Kate DeLucia won the 400 in 58.50, just missing a record 58.00 set last year by Kehs.

The Viking girls broke their own meet record in winning the 3:200 relay in 9:28.62. Their old record, set last year, was 9:31.90. They then went out and won the 1:600 relay in 4:03.12.

Perkiomen Valley also had a male star, as Brian Harkins won both the 110 and 300 hurdles.

Lars Tuveson of Garnet Valley broke his own record in the Class AA boys 800 meters and led the Jaguars to the boys Class AA title with 76.

Captures two sprints

Chester's brilliant sophomore, Dawn Sowell, won both the 100 (11.93) and 200 (25.01) in girls Class AAA, and led the Clippers to the team title in the most tightly-contested class. Chester's girls scored 51 points to edge Great Valley, which had 49.

Two Class AAA field men successfully defended their titles. Great Valley's Drew Bycoskie again won the javelin with a toss of 192 feet, 1 inch. Neshaminy Langhorne's Rob Leneweaver defended his high jump title, leaping 6 feet, 4 inches.

Upper Perkiomen's Mike Connelly won the Class AAA 3,200 for the second straight year, running 9:26.05.

Donna Bowers of North Penn set a meet record in the girls Class AAA javelin with a toss of 123 feet, 9 inches.

Gallagher was the darling of the crowd, however. The senior, who holds two national individual records, had been out of competition for more than a month.

For contrast, consider that runner-up Phoenixville had very respectable 58 — and lost by nearly 100 points!

The Perkiomen Valley girls won the team championship for the fourth consecutive year, and fifth time in the six years that girls' events have been broken into two classes.

The Vikings' Joanne Kehs set a record in the girls' 800 and led a sweep that included teammates Kate Coll and Lisa Howard.

Karen DeLucia won the 400 in 58.33, just missing a record 58.00 set last year by Kehs.

The Viking girls broke their own meet record in winning the 3,200 relay in 9:28.62. Their old record, set last year, was 9:31.90. They then went out and won the 1,600 relay in 4:03.12.

Perkiomen Valley also had a male star, as Brian Harkins won both the 110 and 300 hurdles.

Lars Tuvevsson of Garnet Valley broke his own record in the Class AA boys 800 meters and led the Jaguars to the boys Class AA title with 76.

Captures two sprints

Chester's brilliant sophomore, Dawn Sowell, won both the 100 (11.93) and 200 (25.01) in girls Class AAA, and led the Clippers to the team title in the most tightly-contested class. Chester's girls scored 51 points to edge Great Valley, which had 49.

Two Class AAA field men successfully defended their titles. Great Valley's Drew Bycoskie again won the javelin with a toss of 192 feet, 1 inch. Neshaminy Langhorne's Rob Leneweaver defended his high jump title, leaping 6 feet, 4 inches.

Upper Perkiomen's Mike Connelly won the Class AAA 3,200 for the second straight year, running 9:26.05.

Donna Bowers of North Penn set a meet record in the girls Class AAA javelin with a toss of 123 feet, 9 inches.

Gallagher was the darling of the crowd, however. The senior, who holds two national individual records, had been out of competition for more than a month.

In April she had suffered a severe allergic reaction to a drug administered to halt an inflammation in her left heel.

Gallagher came back last week for the Suburban One meet. Yesterday she gave the wet crowd a thrill with easy victories in the two relays.

She ran no individual events, but the biggest star of all was on the track. And that was enough for the fans.

relay team along with and Joe Ryales.

That collection of talent resulted in an overwhelming team victory for Wissahickon, as the Trojans rolled up 106 points. The next closest boys' Class AAA team was Council Rock, with 31.

Haverford's Dave Jensen became the glamour name in sprints by winning both the 100 (11.06) and 200 (21.86) in boys Class AAA.

But the biggest explosion of team talent was by Perkiomen Valley's brilliant girls. The Vikings won the girls Class AA team title with 153 points, possibly the highest score ever recorded in a District One meet. For contrast, consider that runner-up Phoenixville had very respectable 58 — and lost by nearly 100 points!

The Perkiomen Valley girls won the team championship for the fourth consecutive year, and fifth time in the six years that girls' events have been broken into two classes.

The Vikings' Joanne Kehs set a record in the girls' 800 and led a sweep that included teammates Kate Coll and Lisa Howard.

Karen DeLucia won the 400 in 58.33, just missing a record 58.00 set last year by Kehs.

The Viking girls broke their own meet record in winning the 3,200 relay in 9:28.62. Their old record, set last year, was 9:31.90. They then went out and won the 1,600 relay in 4:03.12.

Perkiomen Valley also had a male star, as Brian Harkins won both the 110 and 300 hurdles.

Lars Tuvevson of Garnet Valley broke his own record in the Class AA boys 800 meters and led the Jaguars to the boys Class AA title with 76.

Captures two sprints

Chester's brilliant sophomore, Dawn Sowell, won both the 100 (11.93) and 200 (25.01) in girls Class AAA, and led the Clippers to the team title in the most tightly-contested class. Chester's girls scored 51 points to edge Great Valley, which had 49.

Two Class AAA field men successfully defended their titles. Great Valley's Drew Bycoskie again won the javelin with a toss of 192 feet, 1 inch. Neshaminy Langhorne's Rob Leneweaver defended his high jump title, leaping 6 feet, 4 inches.

Upper Perkiomen's Mike Connelly won the Class AAA 3,200 for the second straight year, running 9:26.05.

Donna Bowers of North Penn set a meet record in the girls Class AAA javelin with a toss of 123 feet, 9 inches.

Gallagher was the darling of the crowd, however. The senior, who holds two national individual records, had been out of competition for more than a month.

In April she had suffered a severe allergic reaction to a drug administered to halt an inflammation in her left heel.

Gallagher came back last week for the Suburban One meet. Yesterday she gave the wet crowd a thrill with easy victories in the two relays.

She ran no individual events, but "I did better in the trials than I did in the finals. Last year I finished second in the event both here at the district and also in state. I'm more optimistic about this year. Looking at the stats from around the state, I have more of a beam of where I'm

The Patriots, despite a gutsy anchor leg by Jones, were able to finish no higher than sixth. As a result, when the final team point accumulations were tallied, Chester held a slim 51-49 edge over Great Valley.

The Patriots excellent showing in the two-day event was also bolstered by another strong effort by Cindy Jackmon. The talented senior finished second in the long jump, second in the triple jump, and first in the 100-meter hurdles.

"My jumps were just so-so," said Jackmon. "They could have been a lot better, but I made up for it in the hurdles. I think I'll do a lot better in the states next week."

The Great Valley team just missed winning the district altogether over the weekend. They held a slim lead over Chester going into final event of the meet, the 300-meter relay. Both squads were entered in the fast heat of the finals, so the race was set for a showdown. The event itself belonged to the Cardi-

The Patriots, despite a gutsy anchor leg by Jones, were able to finish no higher than sixth. As a result, when the final team point accumulations were tallied, Chester held a slim 51-49 edge over Great Valley.

The Patriots excellent showing in the two-day event was also bolstered by another strong effort by Cindy Jackmon. The talented senior finished second in the long jump, second in the triple jump, and first in the 100-meter hurdles.

"My jumps were just so-so," said Jackmon. "They could have been a lot better, but I made up for it in the hurdles. I think I'll do a lot better in the states next week."

The Great Valley team just missed winning the district altogether over the weekend. They held a slim lead over Chester going into final event of the meet, the 300-meter relay. Garnet Valley boys win district track title

Garnet Valley boys' track team has packed a lot of excitement into a very short period of time. Two weeks ago, the Jaguars won the Delaware County championship, then last week they captured the final Del-Val B League title. On Saturday at a very wet Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, they bagged an even bigger prize, the Class AA District I crown.

Garnet Valley rolled up 76 points, easily outrunning Phoenixville (52), Octorara (44), Bristol and Darby Township (both 42) to earn the school's first district championship.

In Class AAA, Wissahickon was an easy winner with 106 points. Council Rock (31), Haverford (30), Chester and Coatesville (both 28) followed.

states, evenly split in AA and AAA, as well as three AA relay teams and one AAA unit.

The only trophy Garnet Valley hasn't collected yet will be the toughest. The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA) state meet begins Friday in Shippensburg, and based on this weekend's performance, the Jags will be among the favorites.

Garnet Valley had two individual winners, as well as a pair of relay championships. Kevin McNulty won the high jump (6-foot-5) and Lars Tuveusson the 800 meters (1:56.93), and the Jags won the 400-meter relay (Aaron Sam, Jim Cuthbert, Mike Dell'Orefice, Jerry Arters) in 44.74 and the 1,600-meter relay (Dell'Orefice, Arters, Cuthbert, Tuveusson) in 3:30.84.

The most powerful performance was Tuveusson's, who smashed the record of 1:59.54 he had set last year. His nearest competitor was almost five seconds behind, as Tuveusson took the lead early and blew everybody away.

"The first quarter-mile is always my best," said Tuveusson, a senior. "I try to go out fast and then hang on in the second quarter."

"After I crossed the finish line the first time I slacked off a little (as runnerup Steve Ave of New Hope-Solebury) closed in a bit), but then I was able to kick it in over the last 100 meters."

Morlando triples While Tuveusson was excelling in the middle-distance range, Octorara's Andy Morlando was stomping the competition in the sprints. The Octorara junior won the 100 (11.31), 200 (22.94) and 400 (49.95) despite a blister on his left foot, and personally completed 30 of the Braves' 44 points. He also joined Warren Jarratt, Karl Cox and Dean Stoltzfus in registering a third in the 1,600-relay (3:35.67).

"No, the blister didn't bother me at all," said Morlando. "It just opens and closes sometimes. What really hurt was the delay, waiting around for the races to start. Because of the rain, after you get warmed up, all of a sudden you get real cold if you stand around for a while."

"But I feel pretty good right now. I was hoping to win three events, but I was a little worried going into the 400 because I didn't have the fastest qualifying time."

Morlando ended up running a total of nine races over the weekend, which includes all the sprint trials. He ran six on Saturday.

"That doesn't bother me," he said with a smile. "I'm in a lot better shape than I used to be in."

Other area AA winners included Phoe-nixville's Doug MacNeal in the 3,200 (9:43.14), St. Plus' Greg Woods in the discus (141.7), Kennett's Mike Gain in the javelin (191.7) and Phoenixville's Pat Washington in the long jump (23-0.2).

In AAA, Downingtown's Bruce Tiller came within inches of being a double winner. Tiller won the 300-intermediate hurdles in 37.58, edging Harry S. Tru-

Last year I didn't make it to the finals in the long jump or the discus, so very happy with the way things went out this year," said Avon Grove's Sheeran after she had taken second place in both events yesterday at the A District 1 Track and Field Championships at Delaware Valley College in Lewistown. "I did my personal best in 117-4 and I qualified for the state championships in both. I'm very pleased."

The discus, Sheeran was apparently in command with a loss of 112-feet-9-inches at Perkiomen Valley's Tammi Paton last weekend with a throw of 117-4 to win the long jump. Renee's top throw was 16-6 1/2, which was bested only by Swarthmore's tough Vicki Albion. Avon Grove also got good performances from Lisa James who finished third in the shot put final, and from super-soph Kim Webster who won her trial heats in both the 400-meter dash and the 300-meter hurdles.

Oxford's Julie Parcell, Octorara's Julie Wheatley, and Phoenixville's Tracey Whitney all also qualified for the 300-meter hurdles final. The Phantoms also sent a pair of runners, Tanva Pina and Jennifer Rapp, through to the 400-meter dash final. The Blue Demons of Kennett had Lori Pitts log a sixth place finish in the shot put final, while Octorara picked up points when Dawn Thomas finished fifth in the long jump final.

The Indians of Unionville benefited from the fine efforts of Suzanne Minnick. The strong Unionville junior finished fourth in the discus final and second in the shot put final, a foot shy the winning toss by Perki Valley's Paton.

"My distance in the shot put was average, but my throw in the discus was the best I've ever done," said Minnick. "This is the first time I've been in the districts since I was a freshman and I'm satisfied with the results. I'm going to the states in the discus and I'm excited. If I relax

For the last three years, the Southern Chester County League championships have logged a Gain-Mettenheimer finish in the javelin, and yesterday marked the second straight year that the Kennett pair are as different as night and day. "Friday is always loaded with the 'heavy' while Friday is more of a 'clean-up' with qualifying rounds in the heavier races, and a scattering of field at finals.

ware Valley College's stadium in Doylestown, most of the day was devoted to numerous heats of different running events. Only seven finals were conducted and they were all in field events. In AA (small schools) competition, there was the discus, the pole vault, the javelin, the high jump, and the long jump, while in AAA there was only the long jump and the high jump.

Girls' track

Once again yesterday, it was time for Kennett's Mike Gain and Miles Mettenheimer to bask in the limelight. Gain tossed the javelin 191-7 to capture the AA gold medal in the event, and his teammate Mettenheimer finished right behind him, winning the silver medal with a throw of 175-10. If this one-two finish by the Blue Demon seniors caused the gathered spectators to experience a feeling of déjà vu, it was not without cause.

and do my best there. I think I'll be able to do pretty well."

In AAA competition, the Vikings of West Chester East had a good day, qualifying both their 400-meter and their 1,600-meter relay teams. Individually, Gigi Gilham qualified in the 400-meter dash and took fourth place in the long jump final.

Also in the long jump, Great Valley's Cindy Jackson finished runner-up to Norris town's record-breaking Rose Grant. Jackson also finished first in her 100-meter hurdles heat, while her Patriot teammate Megan Jones logged a pair of firsts, winning her heats in the 400-meter dash and the 300-meter hurdles.

The Red Raiders of Coatesville qualified both their relay teams (1,600-meter and 400-meter). Coatesville also placed Linda Oliseski (400-meter dash) and Lori Thompson (800-meter run) in the finals, while Dionne Holmes and April Steele earned berths in the 200-meter dash semifinals. Henderson's Betsy Vautier nailed down a fifth place finish in the javelin final.

From the Central League, Marple-Newtown placed Teresa Scheuer in the 200-meter semifinals and Liga Mezzarups in the finals of the 300-meter hurdles. Conestoga's Sandy Richter gave the Pioneers team points by taking fourth in the javelin final. Her Pioneer teammates Margaret Mills (100-meter dash) and Linda Hammer (300-meter hurdles) both advanced to today's competition, as did the Conestoga 400-meter relay team.

AG's Sheeran second in two field events said Mettenheimer. "Today was my second best throw ever, and both Mike and I qualified for states, so I'm pretty happy."

In other AA final action, Phoenixville's basketball ace, Pat Washington, got the gold medal in the long jump with a 23-1/2 effort. Oxford's Keith White took sixth in the javelin, and the Red Devils of Avon Grove had a pair of point-getters, with Jody McMillan taking fourth in the discus and Stacey Lee logging a fourth-place finish in the long jump.

In running events, Octorara and Phoenixville qualified their 1,600-meter relay teams, while Norco Tech and Avon Grove did the same in the 400-meter relay. Octorara also sent Warren Jarratt through to the 400-meter finals along with Andy Morlando, who also qualified for the 200-meter semifinals. Phoenixville's Terry McAlister qualified for the same event, while his teammate Doug MacNeal, along with Kennett's Felix Maisonet, moved on to the finals of the 1,600-meter run.

Area qualifiers in AAA were Great Valley's Drew Bycoskie (300-meter hurdles); Downingtown's Bruce Tiller (110 and 300-meter hurdles); Coatesville's Willie London (110 and 300-meter hurdles); Ray Holmes (100-meter dash); and Greg Hunter (800-meter run). Marple-Newtown's Mike Jackson (400-meter dash); Henderson's Dale Hagan (100 and 200-meter dashes); and Eward Mannheim (100-meter dash); and East's Craig Howe (300-meter hurdles).
